

The Centre employs competent and suitably qualified professionals from among the best available, to ensure the highest level of efficiency in providing quality health care to patients with a wide range of cancers. Our team of professionals includes Radiation Oncologists, Medical Physicists and Radiation Therapists.